PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: Lord God, Your law and Your prophecies lead Your people to You. To follow them and discover enlightened truth only about the present age is to end up in a blind alley.

May all lawmakers this day know Your presence and seek Your guidance, that they may lead to true justice and lasting peace. Otherwise, Your people are left to flounder.

Without You we are left with nothing and accomplish only a mayhem of action without focus or direction.

You are the way, the truth, and life, now and forever. Amen.

THE FARM BILL AND REFORMING CROP INSURANCE

(Mr. COOPER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, the one thing that we should all be able to agree on in this House regarding the upcoming farm bill is the need to reform crop insurance. The folks back home are demanding that we cut Federal spending, and this is not only a great way to do it, it is probably the best way to do it.

The Cooper-Waxman-McGovern amendment unites this House, from conservative Blue Dogs to progressive Members. It is a bipartisan approach. We simply adopt the reform proposals of the Bush administration. That is all we do. These are not radical ideas; these are USDA approved. But these ideas will save over $2 billion a year. It won't kill the industry; it will just trim back the massive subsidy flows.

Farm bill supporters should also endorse these because they reduce the
